Black-owned franchises earn 2.2 times more than Black-owned independent businesses; Hispanic-owned franchises earn 1.6 times more than Hispanic-owned independent businesses; and Asian-owned franchises earn 1.4 times more than Asian-owned independent businesses.

The Franchise Ascension Initiative will select capable candidates for a rigorous six-month education program to help them build the essential skills they need to be successful franchisees. Building on IFAs extensive library of franchise educational materials, the program will be specifically curated for participants, along with individualized mentorship. The program will culminate in a pitch contest with potential franchise opportunities.

The Dine Brands Foundation was established to further strengthen and establish partnerships with community-based nonprofit organizations that address food insecurity and hunger relief, bringing communities together through nutrition education and access, and creating opportunities in the restaurant industry for a diverse workforce. Dine and its brands – Applebee's, Fuzzy's Taco Shop and IHOP – have been giving back to communities where they operate for decades and remain focused on creating experiences for all stakeholders to dine better, together.
